MEMORANDUM FOR: Acting Director of Central Intelligence

THROUGH: Deputy Director(Support)
 Deputy Director(Intelligence)

SUBJECT: Correspondence between the Director, CIA and the Director, ODM on Vulnerability of U. S.
 Communications to Overseas Areas.

1. This memorandum suggests action on the part of the Acting
 DCI. Such requested action is contained in paragraph 5.

2. I was informed by the Acting Deputy Director(Support) late in July 1957, that the Director wished to bring to the attention of the Director, Office of Defense Mobilization, his concern regarding the vulnerability of U. S. communications with overseas areas.

3. The DDI prepared a letter to the Director, ODM, in which I collaborated, TAB A, which was signed by Mr. Dulles on 31 July 1957.

4. On 20 August 1957, the Director, ODM wrote to Mr. Dulles asking, first whether or not the suggested testing would embrace communications terminals in foreign areas, and second, stated that he was interested in learning how CIA intended to test its communications facilities.
 TAB B.

5. Attached is a proposed draft reply to the Director, ODM, for your signature.
